

CAUSES OF DRUG-INDUCED LIVER INJURY

Category	Examples	Typical Indication or Use
Elevated transaminases (ALT or AST) (Drug-induced hepatitis)	Variety of antibiotics Isoniazid Statins Amiodarone Aspirin Nitrofurantoin Phenytoin Alcohol	Infection Tuberculosis Elevated cholesterol Heart disorders Blood-thinner Urinary tract infection Seizures No indication
Elevated alkaline phosphatase and/or bilirubin (Drug-induced cholestasis and jaundice)	Amoxicillin-clavulanate Erythromycin	Infection Infection
Fatty liver (Drug-induced steatosis)	Tetracycline Valproic acid Alcohol Corticosteroids Amiodarone	Acne Seizures No indication Anti-inflammatory Heart disorders
Liver failure (Drug-induced liver failure)	Acetaminophen Mushroom poisoning Halothane Isoniazid Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs	Pain No indication Anesthesia Tuberculosis Pain or inflammation
Liver scarring (Drug-induced fibrosis)	Methotrexate	Rheumatoid arthritis, psoriasis
Tumors (Drug-induced hepatic tumors)	Oral contraceptives Anabolic steroids	Birth control Muscle building